Keyboard Module (KB)

The keyboard module is a self contained, DC powered unit with an internal 433MHz transceiver. It communicates with the FireRanger Interbox module (the main control in a three part system). It sends commands to switch on, or off, an electric appliance connected to the InterBox.

Its 10 numeric buttons can be used to set a pass-code, preventing operation of the electric appliance by an unauthorized person.